UNIKWORK

Attendance Policy:

Version	1.0
Date	02.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

Objective:

1. All the employees should be present at the office during the office working hours.

2. Official Working Hours: 9.00AM to 6.30 PM

3. For all employees whenever they enter or leave the office, punching in the attendance system is compulsory/mandatory. If he/she does not follow it religiously it will be considered indiscipline behavior and action will be taken against them.

4. Maximum 10 minutes of grace period will be allowed thrice a month.

5. If any employee has finished his/her mandatory three late coming then each late coming will be considered as half day. This is applicable to Asst. Manager and below level employees.

6. The privilege of the grace period is not accumulative. Besides deduction as mentioned herewith, disciplinary action can also be initiated upon habitual late coming.

UNIKWORK

CLASSIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES OR TYPE OF EMPLOYMENT POLICY:

Version	1.0
Date	01.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

Employees shall be classified as Permanent, Probationers and Contractual.

1) Permanent Employees:

Permanent Employee means an employee who has been confirmed in his/her post and has received a letter of confirmation from the authorized personnel on behalf of Unikwork Systems LLP after satisfactory completion of the probation period of service with the.Unikwork Systems LLP.

2) Probationary Employee:

Probationer Employee means an employee who is provisionally employed on trial basis to be considered for permanent vacancy or post and has not completed probationary period fixed for him/her in that behalf and who has not received letter of confirmation in service from the authorized personnel on behalf of Unikwork Systems LLP.

Probationary period will be such as may be determined and on expiry of stipulated period of probation, the employee shall be deemed to continue on probation as a probationary employee. The probationer employee will not be entitled to any of the benefits and privileges of a permanent employee. The Probationer employee shall be governed by the terms of his employment and by rules or orders expressly governing them.

It is hereby expressly provided that benefit conferred under these regulations or any other rules framed by the Unikwork Systems LLP shall not apply to the probationer employee unless otherwise expressly specified.

Rules as regards hours of work and other regulations applicable for discharge of his/her duty, shall, however, apply to them. If a permanent employee is employed as a probationer to a new or higher post, he/she may, at any time, during the probationary period, be reverted to his original permanent post by an order in writing signed by the authorized personnel on behalf of Unikwork in this behalf.

3) Contractual Employee:

Contractual Employee means an employee who is provisionally employed as a core team member/project team member or support staff on a need basis or for work which is essential of a temporary nature or is seasonal in nature or project-specific or a person who is employed temporarily as additional employee in connection with any temporary increase in work for the fixed term of employment of one year.

The employment of these persons can be further extended for the period of one year (maximum up to Two years) based on their performance during the last year of service.

It is hereby expressly provided that the benefit conferred under these regulations or any other rules framed by Unikwork System LLPfor permanent employees shall not apply to the contractual employee unless otherwise expressly specified.

Rules as regards hours of work and other regulations applicable for discharge of his/her duty, shall, however, apply to them. Such contract employee shall not have any right to claim permanency or regularization of his/her employment in the Unikwork Systems LLP after the expiry of the specified period.

The contract can be terminated by either party giving written notice as per the notice period mentioned in the contract or by paying remuneration equivalent to the notice period. Such appointment will automatically come to an end at the expiry of the specified period and no notice or any compensation will be payable.

4) Apprentice/Intern:

Apprentice/Intern means a person who is appointed as an Apprentice and it also includes the one who is employed with or without any allowance to learn a job and who is not a probationary or contractual employee.

UNIKWORK

Equal Employment Opportunities Policy :

Version	1.0
Date	01.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

Policy Statement

Unikwork Systems LLP provides equal employment opportunity to all qualified persons without discrimination based on age, sex, race, disability, caste, marital status or religion by applicable local, state and national laws and regulations.

Unikwork Systems LLP will make reasonable job accommodations for persons with disabilities who can perform the essential functions of the position for which they are qualified and selected. All employment promotion decisions will be based solely upon individuals' qualifications, experience and prior contribution to the given task.

Whether he/she has demonstrated capacity to perform at higher or improved levels of performance will be by the principle of equal employment opportunity. Unikwork Systems LLPwill take affirmative action from time to time if it is necessary to attract and retain qualified persons.

- Objective:

The objective of the Equal Opportunity Policy is to support the attraction and retention of employees who contribute most to the development of the Unikwork Systems LLP activities.

- Application:

The Equal Employment Opportunity policy will be successfully applied when all roles are filled by the best qualified and experienced candidates available regardless of personal circumstances.

- Process:

The Equal Opportunity Employment process is reflected throughout Unikwork Systems LLP 's staff recruitment and retention processes.

UNIKWORK

HEALTH, SAFETY & ENVIRONMENT (HSE) POLICY :

Version	1.0
Date	01.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

Policy Statement

Unikwork Systems LLP is committed to providing and maintaining a safe work environment for the health, safety and welfare of our staff, visitors and Clients who may be associated or affected by our work.

To do this, Unikwork Systems LLP will:

- Develop and maintain safe systems of work, and a safe working environment
- Provide information and training at all levels in the organization to enable all employees to support this policy
- Require all risks to be assessed prior to engaging in new areas of operation, purchasing new equipment, and implementing new work methods, and that these risks continue to be reviewed

All persons who are responsible for the work activities of other employees will be held accountable for:

- Identifying practices and conditions which could injure employees, clients, members or our environment.
- Implementing steps to control such a situation.
- If unable to control such practices and conditions, report these to concerned authorities

Unikwork Systems LLP demands a positive attitude and performance with respect to health, safety and the environment from all employees, irrespective of their position.

Smoking

Smoking is strictly not permitted on Unikwork Systems LLP property or offices at any time. Smoking is harmful to the health of those who smoke and those around them (passive smokers). Consequently, smoking while on organization premises will be considered as gross misconduct and will render an employee liable to disciplinary action.

Alcohol, Drugs (& Other Substance Abuse)

This policy applies to all levels throughout Unikwork Systems LLP. The policy is not concerned with social drinking or taking the prescribed drugs for medical purposes. The concern is directed to instances where alcohol or other drug dependency abuses or affects the job performance and or/safety of any employee(s).

Unikwork Systems LLP is concerned by factors affecting an employee's ability to safely and effectively perform work to a satisfactory standard. The Organization recognizes alcohol or other drug abuse will cause short-term or long-term impairment to such work performance.

Unikwork Systems LLP is committed to create and maintain a safe, healthy and productive workplace for all employees. Unikwork Systems LLP has a zero-tolerance policy in regards to the use of illicit drugs on their premises or attending of other business-related premises (e.g. clients) while under the influence of illicit drugs. Contravening either of these points may lead to instant dismissal.

Attending work under the influence of alcohol will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action or ultimately dismissal.

Unikwork Systems LLP has strict adherence on NO Driving Under the Influence (DUI) of alcohol or any other illicit drug which is illegal. It is employee's own responsibility to ensure & comply with this.

Manual Handling

It is the policy of Unikwork Systems LLP to provide all employees with a safe and healthy working environment by identifying, assessing and controlling manual handling risks within the workplace.

While managerial staffs are ultimately responsible for ensuring the health, safety and welfare of all staff. All employees are expected to participate by reporting potential and actual manual handling hazards within the workplace.

In all circumstances, do not lift or manually handle items larger or heavier than you can easily support. If you are in any doubt, ask for assistance.

Total & Permanent Disability

If an employee is injured while away from work, Unikwork Systems LLP will allow them to exhaust their paid sick leave, accumulated annual leave or long service leave.

If the injured employee has used all leave owing, been off work for a lengthy period and is not fit enough to return to work then management will discuss with the employee about the expected date of returning to work and take appropriate action.

If the employee cannot perform their duties because of the disability, their employment will be terminated in compliance with the termination provisions in their employment contract.

UNIKWORK

LEAVE POLICY:

Version	1.0
Date	26.02.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork system LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

1. Purpose
2. Scope
3. Process of Description
4. Casual Leave Entitlement
5. Leave Application Procedure
6. Short Leaves
7. Leave Records and Monitoring
8. Policy Violations
9. Amendments to the Policy
10. Conclusion

UNIKWORK

1. Purpose

The objective is to provide information to all the employees about the leaves and holidays followed in Unikwork System LLP. Employees need adequate time to celebrate festival holidays, rest and recuperate and spend quality time with family and friends. This policy is effective from 1st April, 2023.

2. Scope

All permanent employees, trainees, will be covered by this leave policy except the Trainee (who does not sign a contract) category with specific employment conditions. All new joiners will be covered from the date of joining.

3. Process Description

For all leave calculations, the calendar year will be from 1st April to 31st March. New joiners' leave eligibility will be prorated till 31st March., from the date of joining. Leaves will be calculated on working days only and will not include intervening weekly offs and holidays.

4. Casual Leave Entitlement

Employees are entitled to 12 paid casual leaves per calendar year. These leaves are carry-forwardable, allowing employees to utilize them at their convenience.

5. Leave Application Procedure

To apply for casual leave, employees must adhere to the following procedures:

- Notice Period:

  Inform the company at least:
  - 3 days in advance for 1 day of leave
  - 5 days in advance for 3 consecutive days of leave
  - 20 days in advance for leaves exceeding 5 consecutive days

- Medical Emergency Leaves:
  - For medical emergencies lasting more than 2 days, employees must submit a medical report to HR for verification.

- Approval:
  - Leave requests require approval from the reporting person to avoid any salary deductions.

6. Short Leaves

Employees are granted a total of 2 short leaves per month, each not exceeding 2 hours. If an employee requires more than 2 hours of leave, it must be considered as a half-day leave.

- Compensatory Time:
  - If a short leave is taken, the employee must compensate by working an extra 2 hours within 5 working days.
  - Compensatory work hours can be scheduled either after 6:30 PM, coming in early in the morning, or adjusting one hour in the morning and one hour in the evening.
  - Short leaves are to be observed by management, and no work during lunch breaks is permitted.

7. Leave Records and Monitoring

The HR department will maintain accurate records of employees' leave balances, usage, and compensatory hours. Management will monitor short leaves to ensure adherence to the policy.

8. Policy Violations

Failure to follow the leave application procedure or misuse of leave benefits may result in disciplinary action, including salary deductions and termination, as per the company's disciplinary policy.

9. Amendments to the Policy

Unikwork Systems LLP reserves the right to amend or modify this leave policy at its discretion. Employees will be duly informed of any changes in advance.

10. Conclusion

This leave policy is designed to promote a healthy work-life balance for employees while ensuring smooth operations within the organization. Employees are encouraged to adhere to the guidelines outlined in this policy for the benefit of all stakeholders.

UNIKWORK

INDUCTION POLICY:

Version	1.0
Date	26.02.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork system LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

1. Policy Statement:

All new employees should complete an induction program upon their commencement. The Induction period also refers to the Three(3) months probationary period during which all staff may need ongoing familiarization with their role, the environment, structure, business, systems and processes.

2. Objective:

The objective of the induction policy is to get acquainted with the organization, their job, the industry, the colleagues, the organization systems, the processes and the policies to ensure they can contribute to business outcomes as quickly as possible. The induction will be a combination of standard components as well as learning specifically tailored to the role.

3. Application:

The induction policy will be considered successfully applied when the new employee meets their probationary period performance.

4. Process:

At Unikwork Systems LLP, managers/supervisors are supposed to complete the induction of a new joinee within a reasonable period of resuming his/her duty. It is the discretion of the management to continue his/her probation.

UNIKWORK

Unikwork Systems LLP Internship Policy

Version	1.0
Date	02.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

1. Purpose
2. Eligibility
3. Duration
4. Roles and Responsibilities
5. Work Hours
6. Intellectual Property and Confidentiality
7. Termination
8. Conclusion

UNIKWORK

1. Introduction

Unikwork Systems LLP is dedicated to providing valuable learning experiences for interns through our internship program. This policy outlines the guidelines and expectations for interns during their tenure with the company.

2. Eligibility

Internship positions at Unikwork Systems LLP are available to students currently enrolled in accredited educational institutions. Candidates must meet the qualifications and requirements specified for each internship position.

3. Duration

Internship durations at Unikwork Systems LLP typically range from three to six months, with the possibility of extensions based on mutual agreement between the intern and the company.

4. Roles and Responsibilities

Interns at Unikwork Systems LLP are expected to:

- Report to Assigned Supervisor: Each intern will be assigned a reporting person who will oversee their day-to-day activities and provide guidance and support throughout the internship.
- Daily Reporting: Interns are required to report their daily activities and progress to their assigned supervisor.
- No Paid Leaves: Unikwork Systems LLP does not provide paid leaves for interns. Interns are expected to fulfill their responsibilities and commitments without the expectation of paid time off.
- College Submission Responsibility: If interns require documentation or reports for submission to their educational institution, it is their responsibility to manage their time effectively to fulfill these requirements outside of their internship hours.
- Problem Resolution: Interns encountering any issues or concerns during their internship tenure are encouraged to reach out to the HR department or their respective team leader for assistance and resolution.

5. Work Hours

Interns are expected to adhere to the designated work hours specified in their internship agreement. Any deviations from the agreed-upon schedule must be approved by their assigned supervisor in advance.

6. Intellectual Property and Confidentiality

Interns are required to adhere to the company's policies regarding intellectual property and confidentiality. They must respect and maintain the confidentiality of proprietary information and sensitive data belonging to Unikwork Systems LLP or its clients.

7. Termination

Unikwork Systems LLP reserves the right to terminate an internship at any time for reasons including but not limited to poor performance, violation of company policies, or changes in business needs.

8. Conclusion

Unikwork Systems LLP is committed to providing interns with a valuable learning experience that enhances their academic and professional growth. This policy ensures clear communication of expectations and responsibilities for interns during their tenure with the company.

UNIKWORK

OVER TIME POLICY :

Version	1.0
Date	26.02.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork system LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

1. Purpose and Scope
2. Eligibility
3. Overtime Approval Process
4. Compensation
5. Recording Overtime Hours
6. Communication
7. Review and Update
8. Compliance with Labor Laws

UNIKWORK

Purpose and Scope:

This policy outlines the procedures and guidelines for approving and compensating employees for overtime work at Unikwork Systems LLP. The purpose is to ensure fair and consistent practices regarding overtime while maintaining compliance with applicable labor laws.

Eligibility:

All full-time employees are eligible for overtime pay except those exempted by law and Team Leaders or Project Managers. Overtime eligibility will be determined based on the nature of the work and applicable labor regulations.

Overtime Approval Process:

Employees must obtain prior approval from their supervisor or Reporting Person before working overtime. Overtime requests should be submitted through the Keka software and include details such as the reason for overtime, the expected duration, and the tasks to be performed.

Supervisors and managers are responsible for reviewing and approving overtime requests based on the workload, project deadlines, and overall business needs.

Mistakes or Delays:

Overtime will not be considered for employee mistakes that result in project delays, provided these errors are not due to negligence or intentional misconduct. In cases where delays occur due to personal issues, employees are expected to communicate promptly with their supervisor. Overtime approval related to project delays will be at the supervisor's discretion and should be discussed on a case-by-case basis.

Compensation:

Overtime will be compensated at 1.2 times the regular hourly wage. Overtime pay will be included in the employee's regular paycheck and is subject to applicable taxes and deductions.

Recording Overtime Hours:

All overtime hours must be accurately recorded in the Keka software by the employee. Failure to record overtime hours may result in delayed or incorrect compensation.

Communication:

This overtime policy will be communicated to all employees. Employees will be provided with training on the procedures for requesting and recording overtime, as well as the company's expectations regarding overtime limits.

Review and Update:

This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure its effectiveness and compliance with any changes in labor laws or company needs. Updates will be communicated to all employees.

Compliance with Labor Laws:

Unikwork System LLP is committed to complying with all relevant labor laws and regulations. This policy will be amended as necessary to follow local, state, and federal laws.

UNIKWORK

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY:

Version	1.0
Date	01.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

Introduction

At Unikwork Systems LLP, we aim to be an employer of choice where people want to work. As a prominent organization, we are committed to give every opportunity to all members of our team to develop their careers, to contribute to the growth & development and to share in its success.

The Performance Management System (PMS) is designed to support the completion of the assigned work of the organization. It will also define measures and recognise the contribution of individuals and help the organization establish achievable goals for all of its employees – it is a team-based approach.

Performance Management Philosophy

The Organization (Unikwork Systems LLP) believes that everyone who comes to work realizes their potential and wants to develop their relationships with others (managers, colleagues and clients).

Work is characterized by feelings of satisfaction, frustration, opportunity, aspiration, stimulation, excitement and even feelings of fairness and dishonesty. To succeed and excel, we recognise; people need to know what is expected from them, what authority they have and how they have to perform.

The Performance Management System is designed to be the foundation for achieving a fulfilling career at Unikwork Systems LLP.

Job Position Descriptions

All Unikwork Systems LLP employees will have positional job descriptions, these will only be produced in an agreed format and amendments need to be approved by the Superiors or Management from time to time.

- Objectives

The objective of all positional job descriptions is to provide an accurate picture of the responsibilities required within specific job roles, the authority levels attached to that role and a clear explanation as to how the output of the role is to be measured.

- Application

The policy on positional description will be successfully applied when all position descriptions are used as the basis for performance appraisals and when amendments are completed within the predefined time of a performance appraisal discussion. Any changes to position descriptions deemed necessary by Managers will be communicated as soon as practicable to the employee and this will be implemented by both parties signing a copy.

Probationary Period Reviews

- Policy Statement

All new employees are appointed with the intention of the placement being permanent unless otherwise stated in the letter of offer.

All new employees will serve a 3 (Three) month's probationary period to ensure both Unikwork Systems LLP and the employees are ready with a permanent commitment to the role. Managers should update new employees in informal performance-based feedback regularly and have specific meetings to discuss the progress after one and two months respectively.

Prior to the completion of the probationary period new employees will undergo a performance appraisal to provide feedback on performance, guidance on future direction and to set selected specific objectives for the next performance appraisal period.

- Objectives

The objective of the probationary performance appraisal is to ensure both Unikwork Systems LLP and the employee are satisfied with the role offered and both are agreed for recommitment to the permanent nature of the position can be made.

- Application

The policy on probationary performance appraisals will be successfully applied when all probationary appraisals are completed within the commencement of employment in six months.

Process:

1. The Supervisor/Manager and the employee will agree on the date for a performance appraisal meeting. In the case of all probationary period appraisals, this must be before the completion of six months of service.

2. The Supervisor/Manager will prepare a written performance appraisal in the approved format and provide this to the employee at least 48 hours prior the meeting.

3. The Supervisor/Manager and the employee will meet, discuss and agree upon any objectives for the next appraisal period.

Performance Appraisals

★ Policy Statement

All employees will undergo performance appraisals with their immediate managers on timing that is based on the level of their role. All performance appraisals will be timed from the date employment commenced. This is to ensure performance management is a regular, rather than occasional management responsibility. Performance appraisals are completely separate from remuneration reviews.

★ Objectives

The objective of the performance appraisal system is to constantly monitor progress of the capabilities and achievements of employees, to facilitate the ongoing development of team members and to identify when an employee has demonstrated readiness for greater responsibility.

The objective of individual performance appraisals is to review work performance based on both capabilities and achievement of specific performance objectives. Performance appraisals also provide feedback to SGCCI on the achievability of objectives and the capability of managers to manage their employees.

Professional & Personal Development

Policy Statement

Unikwork Systems LLP, in partnership with the employee, will maintain a professional and personal development plan for each employee. Unikwork Systems LLP's role in this is as a supportive facilitator. It will be up to the employee to take a leading role in managing their own development within an approved structure.

Funding for professional and personal development will be considered for support by Unikwork Systems LLP on its merits.

Unikwork Systems LLP may, from time to time, require employees to attend specific training or instruction delivered by internal or external facilitators. This may be on or off-site. Development may take the form of training, education, mentoring, coaching or counseling.

Objectives

The objective of the professional and personal development policy is to provide a structured environment for learning and development for the individual within the organization.

Application

The policy on professional and personal development will be successfully applied when employees are managing their own development plans.

Process

During the appraisal process the Manager/Management will identify and document the areas of the employee's performance which may be enhanced by further training. The Manager/ Management will identify the scope of training where possible.

The employee and manager/management will then work together to complete a professional development plan for the employee.

In response to this the employee can source their own solutions instead of, or in addition to the Management's suggestions. Requests to attend these should be submitted in writing to the Management and must include:

- ★ Suggested dates
- ★ Time duration and costs
- ★ Anticipated outcomes

UNIKWORK

HEALTH, SAFETY & ENVIRONMENT (HSE) POLICY :

Version	1.0
Date	01.04.2024
Scope	This Policy applies to all full-time employees Of Unikwork Systems LLP.
Confidential	No, For internal use only.

Policy Created
Shraddha Shah (HR)

Policy Approver
Nirav Vavadiya (CEO)

UNIKWORK

PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT WORKPLACE POLICY.

Introduction

Sexual harassment at the workplace is regarded as the violation of an individual's right to equality, life and liberty that creates a hostile work environment, which discourages their participation in work and adversely affects social and economic empowerment and the goal of inclusive growth. This Policy seeks to protect against sexual harassment at the workplace and prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment. Unikwork Systems LLP is committed to providing a safe, healthy, and dignified working environment to the people associated with it.

Objective

To set forth the expectations of conduct and mutual respect at the workplace about the prevention of sexual harassment and the process of inquiry and complaint redressal if these expectations are not met or are violated.

To identify a definition of sexual harassment in the workplace, explain the process of raising a complaint and its redressal if sexual harassment occurs. To emphasize that anyone engaging in any kind of harassment will be subjected to disciplinary action ranging from warning to termination of service or legal action as per the applicable law.

This Policy has been formulated in line with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.

Scope

This Policy applies to all employees of the Company, and all other stakeholders of the Company, including contract employees, trainees and temporary employees, vendors, customers, and guests of the Company.

Definitions

Act: Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, as may be amended from time to time read together with the rules made thereunder;

Aggrieved Party: Any person, whether employed or not, who alleges to have been subjected to an act of sexual harassment by the respondent. This would include visitors or guests at the Workplace;

District Officer: Officer designated by the Government to exercise power and discharge functions under the Act;

Employee: Any person engaged at the Workplace for any work, including all regular, permanent and temporary employees of the Company, full-time or part-time employees of the Company, consultants, interns, contractors, ad hoc or honorary employees, probationers, trainees, apprentices by whatever name called, whether employed for remuneration / working voluntarily, or otherwise engaged either directly or through an agent, and with or without the knowledge of the Company. In case of an allegation of Sexual Harassment against a contractor, the Company will work with the direct employer of the alleged offender/concerned vendor or supplier to decide how the matter should be dealt with;

IC: means an 'Internal Committee' formed under this Policy.

Investigating Member: This means the member of the IC formed under this Policy.

Respondent: A person against whom the Aggrieved Party has raised a complaint of sexual harassment at the Workplace.

Sexual Harassment: means any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviours:

(a) Physical contact and advances; or

(b) A demand or request for sexual favors; or

(c) Making sexually coloured remarks; or

(d) Showing pornography; or

(e) Any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

Further, the following circumstances may amount to sexual harassment if it occurs or is present about any other act of Sexual Harassment:

(a) Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment;

(b) Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in employment;

(c) Implied or explicit threat about present or future employment status;

(d) Interference with work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment;

(e) Humiliating treatment likely to affect health or safety;

(f) Unwelcome sexual advances involving verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct such as sexually coloured remarks, jokes, letters, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, gestures, lurid stares, physical contact or molestation, stalking, sounds, display of pictures, signs, any other communication which offends an Aggrieved Party/Complainant's sensibilities and affects her performance at work;

(g) Eve teasing, innuendos and taunts, physical confinement against one's will and likely to intrude upon one's privacy; or

(h) Any unwelcome gesture having sexual overtones to the extent not covered above.

Workplace: The office premises of the Company including the registered office, corporate office, branch office, parking space, transportation provided by the Company, any place visited by the Employee arising out of or during the course of employment and any such area, building, place or space as may be specified by the board of directors of the Company in this regard. It shall also include areas which can be termed as a notional extension of the Company's premises. For instance, places where work conferences and other work-related events take place, offsites, business trips, (domestic or foreign), cabs, and in a work-from-home scenario, the home of the employee as well.

Behavior

The following behavior is considered inappropriate at the Workplace and any person indulging in such behavior shall be liable for disciplinary and legal action:

Verbal Harassment, which includes:

(a) A demand or request for sexual favors over promises related to employment such as work conditions, promotion, and increment. This is known as "quid pro quo" sexual harassment.

(b) Gesture-based harassment e.g., sexually coloured remarks.

(c) Making sexually suggestive or off-color comments, threats, slurs, sexual propositions.

(d) Sexual jokes or teasing, misogynist humor, sexually coloured, gender-specific jokes.

(e) Sexual innuendos and off-color remarks.

(f) Comments about how someone looks, especially about parts of the body.

Physical Harassment, which includes:

(a) Physical contact and advances.

(b) Intentional touching, pinching, grabbing, and brushing against another's body.

(c) Sexual assault.

(d) Cornering, trapping, or blocking another's pathway.

(e) Any unwelcome physical conduct.

Written or Graphic Harassment, which includes:

(a) Showing pornography.

(b) The display of pornographic material.

(c) Written communication that has sexual implications.

(staring at another's body and/or sexually suggestive gesturing.

(e) d) Leering or Displaying sexually visual material such as pinups, cartoons, graffiti, computer programs, and catalogs of a sexual nature.

(f) Any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature.

(g) Cognizance will also be taken of complaints of the aforesaid nature received against an employee from an outside client or vendor in the course of an official transaction.

The following circumstances, if theyoccur or is connected will amount to an act of Sexual Harassment:

(a) Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment.

(b) Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in employment.

(c) Implied or explicit threat about present or future employment status.

(d) Interferes with work or creates an intimidating offensive or hostile work environment.

(e) Humiliating treatment is likely to affect the health or safety of an employee.

The members of the IC are listed below.

IC Member

Name	Designation	Email ID	Contact
Nirav Vavadiya	CEO/President	nirav@unikwork.com	99258 59000
Priya Dhola	PM	priya@unikwork.com	76981 56742
Shraddha Shah	HR	Shraddha.hrwork@gmail.com	75678 30113
Pavan Golakiya	PM	Pavan.mobileappdev@gmail.com	97235 67037

The IC is expected to provide a sound mechanism for redressal of grievances by:

(a) Accepting and registering in due time, any complaint pertaining to Sexual Harassment;

(b) Conducting inquiry within the specified timelines and recommending to the Company, any action to be taken against the respondent;

(c) Recommending to the Company, the need for medical, psychological, and emotional assistance to the Aggrieved Party, if found necessary;

(d) Seeking police or legal intervention wherever necessary; and

(e) Keeping the entire proceedings confidential.

The IC shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of the following matters, namely, summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him/her on oath, requiring the discovery and production of documents, and any other matter which may be prescribed.

The IC shall submit an annual report to the Company containing details of the number of complaints of Sexual Harassment received in the year, the number of complaints disposed of during the year, the number of complaints pending for more than 90 (ninety) days, the number of workshops or awareness programs against Sexual Harassment carried out and details of the action taken by the Company after receiving the recommendations of the IC.

The Company will keep records of all complaints, investigations proceedings and verdicts of the case strictly confidential. After investigation, the seriousness of the offense and the findings will dictate the course of action. The redressal procedures shall be sensitive to the particularly delicate nature of complaints related to Sexual Harassment.

Raising a Complaint:

A complaint can be raised by the affected person or by someone who has witnessed the behavior.

If an incident of this kind is brought to the notice of any employee (not necessarily the reporting manager of the respondent/affected person), he/she is responsible for communicating the same to the IC. The complaint must be made in writing to the chairperson or any member of the IC within 3 (three) months from the date of incident, the period of 3 (three) months can be extended based on the nature of the case by the IC.

The complaint can be lodged with any of the Investigating Members whose email IDs are displayed on the Notice Board and on the Company portal. If the complainant feels that he/she cannot disclose his/her identity for any reason, the complainant can inform the Investigating Members of his / her desire for anonymity. In such cases the IC shall ensure that the identity of the complainant is kept confidential.

All complaints, whether in hard-copy or email form, should be clear and should include details of the incident or incidents, supporting documents, names of individuals involved and the name, addresses of the witnesses and complete contact details of the Aggrieved Party.

If a complaint cannot be made in writing for any reason, the Investigating Member(s) shall render all reasonable assistance to the Aggrieved Party for making the complaint in writing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following designees may file a complaint on behalf of the Aggrieved Party:

(a) If the Aggrieved Party is unable to make a complaint on account of her physical incapacity, a complaint may be filed by her relative or friend, or her co-worker, or an officer of the National Commission for Woman or State Women's Commission, or any person who knows about the incident, with the written consent of the Aggrieved Party;

(b) In the event the Aggrieved Party is unable to make the complaint on account of his / her mental incapacity, the complaint may be filed by his / her relative or friend, a special educator, a qualified psychiatrist or psychologist; the guardian or authority under whose care he / she is receiving treatment or care, or any person who has knowledge of the incident jointly with any of the foregoing persons; and/or

(c) Where the Aggrieved Party for any other reason is unable to make a complaint, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with his / her written consent.

-

The procedure for filing a complaint:

(a) The complainant can send an email at anyone members's email ID; or

(b) The complainant can contact the Investigating Member; or

(c) The complainant can file a complaint with the District Officer directly.

Unjustified Complaints

When the investigations reveal that the complaint is unjustified, the IC will take steps to counsel the complainant and recommend steps to prevent any recurrence in the future.

False Complaints

Dealing with complaints of Sexual Harassment is a sensitive matter and any allegations/ complaints, however discreetly handled, could prove damaging for the person against whom it has been raised. Baseless allegations should therefore be strictly avoided. In a case where a false complaint has been filed and the investigation has proved that the motivation of the complaint was purely to defame the Respondent, disciplinary action will be initiated against the complainant and recorded in the personal file of the complainant. The action to be taken will be recommended by the IC. Action can also be taken against a witness who provided false evidence or produced any forged or misleading document.

Appeal

Any person aggrieved by the recommendations of the IC has the right to appeal. The appeal is to be made to the court or tribunal according to the applicable employment contract within 90 (ninety) days of the recommendation.

Awareness, Communication & Employer Duties

The emphasis of Company's Policy against Sexual Harassment shall be preventive rather than prescriptive.

The Company will ensure that all its employees are aware of and fully understand the tenets and conduct requirements laid out in this Policy. Each Employee will mandatorily go through this Policy to signify their commitment to acting within its code of conduct. The Company is also required to:

(a) Display at conspicuous locations in the workplace, the penal consequences of Sexual Harassment; and the order constituting the IC;

(b) Regularly organize workshops and awareness programs to sensitize the employees to the provisions of the Act and orientation program for the members of the IC;

(c) Provide necessary facilities to the IC to deal with the complaint and conduct an enquiry;

(d) Assist in securing the attendance of respondent and witnesses before the IC;

(e) Make available the required information to the IC;

(f) Provide assistance to the Aggrieved Party, if he/she chooses to file a complaint in the matter under the Indian Penal Code or any other applicable law in force;

(g) Treat Sexual Harassment as misconduct under the service rules and initiate action for such misconduct; and

(h) Monitor the timely submission of reports by the IC

Prohibition on Publication

The contents of the complaint, identity and addresses of the Complainant, Respondent and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the IC, and the action taken by the Company are not to be published, communicated, or made known to the public, press and media. However, information may be disseminated regarding the justice administered to any Aggrieved Party of sexual harassment without disclosing the name, address, identity, or any other particulars which will lead to the identification of the Aggrieved Party and witnesses.

Policy Evaluation

This Policy will be evaluated from time to time by the Company's Board, so that any amendments required may be incorporated based on past experience or changes in the law.